

Assignment 2

Analyzing and explaining my process

I got the idea surfing the Internet and from many websites I saw, those sites www.dribbble.com and www.wix.com helped me the most. I created a vision of how to do this task. I think that in this way, as I did the given page, it will be most transparent. All we have to offer is exposed (by a little description for each offer) so that the user can choose what interests him and clicking one button he can go to a site that talks more about it.
